

CONFIDENTIAL CLIENT REPORT

January 28, 2014

Dear Mr. Occhipinti,
National Police Defense Foundation
npdf1@aol.com

As you know, our son Jay Cicinelli, along with two other officers, all from the Fullerton Police Department in Orange County, California were acquitted of all the charges against them which included murder, manslaughter and excessive force under the color of authority. The jury voted unanimously on the first vote to acquit of all charges.

Since the verdict, our family have been dealing with death threats, nasty e-mails, vulgar phone calls all hours of the day and night, and physical attacks on our homes. In the two weeks since the verdict we have been bodyguards to our grandchildren, however, things have started to settled down.

Now we want to turn to those who have been supporting us through this ordeal and thank everyone for their thoughts and prayers.

When we were going through the really rough days we learned of your organization and placed a call to you. Just knowing you and others like you were supporting us during this difficult time was such an uplift emotionally and mentally.

Please let all of those of your organization know how much their support means to us. You and Mr. Michael Cornecchia have been so gracious with your sound legal advice and offers of help. Again, thank you.

We now have the task of trying to get Jay's job back. The Fullerton Chief , Danny Hughes has publically stated that he will do all he can to prevent the officers from being rehired at Fullerton PD. We have an arbitration due in August of this year in an attempt to retain his job.

CONFIDENTIAL CLIENT REPORT

The NOT GUILTY verdict was a victory for Jay Cicinelli, Manuel Ramos and Joseph Wolfe, and just as important, a victory for officers all across the United States.

Jay, Manny and Joe still have a clean record, however, they have lost a great deal in reputation, public standing, community relations and not to leave out loss of their financial reputation from the huge financial losses they have incurred.

Mr. Occhipinti, again, thank you and the National Police Defense Foundation so, so much for all your time, phone calls, thoughts and prayers.

Please remember us and please share our thanks with all those who were so gracious with their thoughts and prayers.

God Bless You All out there in New York.

John A. Huelsman & Donna Cicinelli Huelsman
P.O. Box 1017
Whittier, California 90609
huelsman007@earthlink.net
(562) 544-7157