A $10,000 reward is being offered by the National Police Defense Foundation for information leading to the arrest and conviction of Tony Gebian Lopez-Infante, 32, who is wanted for the May 18 hit and run crash that seriously injured Zachary Carach, 21, while he was attempting to cross Church Street. The reward offer is good for one year, through June 19, 2026.

Arrest warrants charging Lopez-Infante with leaving the scene of a personal injury accident, failure to render aid/file an accident report, attempted evidence tampering, and driving without a license/insurance have been issued. Lopez-Infante is also wanted in Williamson County on an outstanding probation violation warrant related to a theft arrest.

Anyone with information about Lopez-Infante's whereabouts is urged to contact Crime Stoppers at 615-742-7463. Callers to Crime Stoppers can remain anonymous and qualify for a cash reward, in addition to the $10,000 reward offer.
